

PIAA District 6 Girls' Golf Tournament
October 13-14, 2010 – 10:00 am Shotgun Start
Penn State Golf Course- White Course (State College, PA)

October 13, 2010:

The PIAA District 6 Girls' Golf Championships got under way at the Penn State Golf Course. Sara Jackson from State College shot a 5-over 77 on the White Course to lead all individuals after the first day of the two-day competition. Her playing partners Olivia Stever, Tyrone, and Alyssa Sinclair, Bellefonte, earned the next two spots on the leaderboard with 82 and 86, respectively.

State College shot a 386 team score to lead second place Hollidaysburg (398) by 13 strokes heading into tomorrow's action. Bellefonte (403) and Philipsburg-Osceola (450) are the other schools who entered teams into District play.

The second day starts at 10:00 am with a shotgun start at Penn State Golf Courses- White Course tomorrow. Hollidaysburg's Teresa Kuhns (91), Bellefonte's Karissa Thal (93), Philipsburg-Osceola's Mo Witters (94), State College's Christine Hughes (95) and United's Leah Plowman (96) look to improve on their day one totals and grab one of the three individual spots to advance to next week's Western Regional competition to be held at Tom's Run Golf Course in Blairsville on October 18. The top team also will represent District 6 at that competition.
